

A local alliance of leaders, game changers and innovators.

2110 South Cedar St.
Lansing, MI 48910

P: 517.492.5588
F: 517.487.0113

www.camconline.org

Livingston County

Mott Community College-Livingston Center offers short-term certificate training in welding, HVAC, CNC and other manufacturing careers at their campus in Howell. Click here for more information.

Intern Livingston links high school and college students with internship opportunities at local companies. Visit their website at <http://www.internlivingston.org/>

The Workforce Intelligence Network for Southeast Michigan offers real-time labor market information for job seekers, businesses, counselors, teachers and parents. Find out what jobs and careers are in demand at their website <http://www.win-semich.org/>

The Michigan Works! Livingston Service Center provides career counseling, workshops, assessment services, tuition assistance, and other career resources. Click here for information.

High School students in Livingston County can access award-winning career and technical education programs in robotics, advanced manufacturing, and Engineering / CAD through the Livingston Applied Technology Education Consortium. For more information contact your high school counselor or Livingston Applied Technology Education Consortium at 517-540-6831 or visit their website at www.latec.us